COLONEL FLY IS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

Col. Ben Franklin Fly is still confined to his room at the Southern Pacific hotel, though today he appears to be slightly better. A heavy cold bordering on pneumonia, contracted in New York enroute to Washington, six weeks ago, has held the colonel bedfast much of the time since, and would've laid low many a less vigorous man. Col. Fly attended to Yuma's fight in committee and out without a slip by mere force of will power. And Yuma citizens fully appreciate this kind of a fighter. It is by such men that communities progress.

HAROLD SHOREY, JR., RETURNS

Harold Shorey, Jr., is home from Glendale, Cal., where he has been with his grandmother for nearly two years. The little fellow has grown considerably, and, being past 6 years old, began school this week at the Second avenue school.

The large number of Yuma people who anticipated the pleasure of listening to Dr. Anton Bast of Denmark, at the Methodist church last Sunday night, may yet have that pleasure, though no definite statement is given out by his brother-in-law, Hon. George Michelsen, of this city, who stated today to the Examiner that Rev. Bast is now on the coast and will probably pass through this city next Tuesday, when it is hoped that he can be prevailed upon to stop over here for a day at least.

The Los Angeles Times of Thursday gives some interesting details of the visit of this distinguished Dane to America. Speaking of his visit in Los Angeles, the Times says: BRINGS KING'S GREETING Danish Delegate to General Conference of Methodist Church is Visitor Here

The official bearer of greeting from His Majesty, the King of Denmark, to the Danes in America, is in Los Angeles. This visitor is Dr. Anton Bast, pastor of Jerusalem church and founder of the Central Mission in Copenhagen, Denmark. He is the guest of Rev. O. A. Doblough, No. 950 Denver avenue, pastor of the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist Episcopal church.

Dr. Bast is a delegate from the Danish conference to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is to meet in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., during the month of May. Prior to this meeting he is visiting some of the larger cities of America.

On account of this visit he was summoned before leaving Copenhagen for a private audience with His Majesty, the King of Denmark, who engaged him in friendly conversation in regard to his great evangelistic and philanthropic work in Copenhagen, and who wished him Godspeed on his journey to America. The King also desired Dr. Bast to bear his greetings to the Danes in this country and to the Americans among whom the Danes have found a great and good new fatherland.

Dr. Bast will lecture this evening in the Swedish Tabernacle, Francisco and Lincoln streets, and tomorrow evening in the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist Episcopal church. No. 1027 West Tenth street. He will speak in Danish, and his subject will be "From the Darkest of Copenhagen." The admission is free.

Joe Lazure, the Dome miner, was in the city today and called at the Examiner office for a new supply of mining location notices.

Miss Gladys A. Smith has gone to Long Beach, Cal., on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. S. McCormick.
